When submitting the info request form you authorize USDA Mortgage Source to provide your contact information to an approved best matched lender. You will be contacted by up to (2) approved lenders, based on property state and loan program type. Lenders could ask for additional information in order to process your request. USDA Mortgage Source will never perform a credit check. The info request form is NOT an application for mortgage credit, nor is it used to pre-qualify you with any lender. There are NO cost to submit a contact form via www.USDAmortgagesource.com

USDA Mortgage Source never requests sensitive personal information like social security, date of birth, banking information, etc. Additionally, USDA Mortgage Source never sells data for market research.

Note: USDA Mortgage Source does not advertise specific interest rates or fees in connection with a loan. Lenders could require certain fees in connection with processing your loan request. However, applicants are not required to agree to such fees and can cancel the loan process at anytime. As expected, borrowers will be responsible for paying any closing costs or other fees to the lender with whom you close. When evaluating offers, please take time to review the lenders terms and conditions. It's always a good idea to shop around and compare multiple offers.
